

My Pony Burt

Fill in the blank with words that rhyme at the bottom to finish the poem!

My little pony Burt has a tooth that

He tries not to jump and run, but that is not much

The little children want to ride, but Burt just wants to stay

He is longing for the day, when once again he'll run and

go

fun

run

play

inside

hurts

Good job!
